GUEST - PUBLIC COMMENT (3 Minute Limit)

Lorraine Jordan attended the meeting to discuss the water in her basement again. She feels that the water is coming from her neighbors house but we advised her that we performed a dye test and it did not come into her home so it is not coming from their home. She later mentioned that her husband dug up the basement and came across an underground spring. We advised her that the spring is most likely the cause of her water problem.

* Doug Baird and Tom Moore abstained from voting on the solicitor

Doug Baird brought up that he received a phone call on Friday, January 31st at 10:00 from McDonalds Mayor, Dave Cooper, advising him that McDonald would not be able to provide police coverage Friday and Saturday nights between the hours of 2:00 am and 6:00 am because they did not have any officers available to work. Mr. Cooper advised that he already talked with Mt. Pleasant Police Department and they were will to answer any 911 calls that came in for both McDonald and Midway during those times.

All members of Council were unhappy with this situation and feel that it was a breach of contract. Doug and Mayor Bartosh are having a meeting with Mayor Cooper and members of their police department on February 6th to discuss this issue and the future of the McDonald Police Department.
