Secretary Baird advised Council that she is still working on the information regarding a possible chicken/duck ordinance.

Councilmen Cooper advised that Kane Construction returned to the old community center property and replanted grass in areas that were not growing.

NEW BUSINESS

President Baird advised that the fire department is looking into replacing the lettering on the front of the building and asked Council if they would like to add lettering for the Borough. Council agreed that "Municipal Building" should be added.

Councilmen Cooper advised that he and Doug Baird met with Kerry Fox from the Community Development Authority (Block Grant) to do a final inspection of Jefferson Street. Everything was done to our satisfaction but a problem was found at the bottom of Jefferson Street where a resident parked a trailer and made holes in the brand new pavement. Kerry Fox advised that if a problem with the road occurs due to this situation, they will not cover the repairs.

Councilwomen Jones said that she would like us to look into possibly putting a pickle ball court in at the park. Jones will looking into getting all of the information and we will discuss at a later date.
